

To raise great kids, all you need is a little drive.

Introducing Family Works ProActive™, a revolutionary CD-ROM* that will help make you an even better parent. And make your kids even better...well...kids.

ProActive is packed with all kinds of benefits. It enables you to clearly define your family's values. The unique chore/reward scheduler promotes volunteerism, responsibility and time-management skills. Its rewards database suggests tons of fun, interactive and educational activities that don't require much time, skill or money.

And ProActive isn't just good for your family, it's good for your community. Because Family Works, the non-profit organization that created ProActive, will donate 10% of your tax-deductible purchase to Your Organization.

To order, call 800-557-8080 and enter 1234, or visit our web site at www.familyworks.com. Try ProActive for 30 days. If you're not completely satisfied, we'll refund your money.

In other words, you've got nothing to lose. And a happier, more proactive family to gain.
