

As the decision-maker of a small business, you know how difficult it is to project a big-time image without investing in the high overhead of a traditional office. This is especially true if you spend time out of the office.

Intelligent Office changes all that by bringing you a new way to work professionally and improve communication for less cost. Your customers experience a polished business environment – complete with knowledgeable receptionists, professional meeting spaces and customized business services.

Everything you expect from a traditional office at a fraction of the cost:

- Assistants who represent your company your way, and who answer, screen and seamlessly connect calls to anyone, anywhere
- A prestigious business address with drop-off and pick-up privileges 24/7
- Office space with plush amenities available when you need it
- Scheduling, registrations and any other customized customer fulfillment service

Intelligent, isn't it?

Take on the big guys – without taking on the big overhead.
